An effective technique for figuring out a worth is to send out a survey to your current customers. If these customers have already bought an book from you, ask for his or her opinion when it comes to price. Do this by making a gross sales web page for the new book, but don't embrace a worth on that page. Another strategy is to check out prices by creating a number of duplicate sales pages with completely different costs on every page. Be sure that your sales copy is precisely the similar on each web page, and contains your selling-handle sentence. Then figure out for every web page the conversion ratio between guests to your site and gross sales of your book. This may inform you what your optimum worth is.
