If these customers have already bought an e-book from you, ask for his or her opinion in terms of price. Do this by creating a sales page for the brand new book, however do not include a value on that page. As an alternative, add quite a lot of links to survey questions that ask pointed questions to help you in assigning a worth to your ebook.

One other technique is to check out prices by making a number of duplicate sales pages with different costs on every page. Be sure that your gross sales copy is precisely the similar on every page, and consists of your selling-handle sentence. Then determine for each page the conversion ratio between visitors to your website and sales of your book. This may let you know what your optimum worth is.

In the end, if you've written a guide that solves a downside or presents a new technique, your book will usher in both visitors and profits. So you'll want to write that selling-deal with sentence that sums up what drawback your book solves and what the benefits of your 1501 guide will likely be to the shoppers who buy it.
